

Diana, Princess of Wales in a soft brown Arabella Pollen coat dress and beret trimmed with leather, 1982

PHOTOGRAPHS: GETTY IMAGES; GORUNWAY; SINAHBRUCKNER

HIT THE BROWN!

Rich, velvety, luxuriant: designers are nuts about this sophisticated earthy hue

By CHANDLER TREGASKES

On the runway, brown is the new black, and in the jewellery world, too, all roads lead to Brown Town, with brunette bling becoming the hottest accoutrement this season. Brown diamonds featured in the high jewellery collections at Paris Haute Couture Week and were positively dripping in Geneva's glittering bijou scene. Adler's Sail earrings are set with 528 of the dark-hued stones, while Fernando Jorge's avant-garde creations crescendo into four breathtaking pear drops suspended from wooden swirls. Lucy Delius's cognac gems induce a hazy bliss, and Karina Choudhrie's Beneath The Waves ring takes inspiration from the earthy tones of the mineral-rich seabeds beneath our oceans.

Princess Eugenia of Hanover poses for Tatler.com in Hermès, a house associated with distinctive amber and orange hues

HATESTEL

Saint Laurent AW25

Burberry AW25

- 1 Ring, £4,500, LUCY DELIUS. 2 Bracelet, £12,600, LILY GABRIELLA FINE JEWELLERY. 3 Earrings, POA, ADLER. 4 Cuff, £27,400, TIFFANY & CO. 5 Ring, POA, KARINA CHOUDHRIE. 6 Ring, £5,660, CLARA CHEHAB. 7 Necklace, £163,075, MARLO LAZ. 8 Earrings, POA, BOGHOSSIAN. 9 Ring stack, £4,500, BY PARIAH. 10 Earrings, £27,870, G COLLINS & SONS. 11 Earrings, POA, FERNANDO JORGE. 12 Bracelet, POA, DE BEERS